

MUSICDal Hothi Returns With New Album

Dal Hothi, who has shortened his moniker from Dal-Dil-Vog to simply Dil-Vog, meaning Garden Of Hearts, is back with a new album after a long hiatus. His new album is called Indian Groove and features the hit song Kabhi Kabhi. Dil-Vog is known for its fusion of Bhangra Rhythms and heavy rock. Through a fusion of modern western and Indian melodies and beats with lyrics in English, Punjabi and Hindi, the singer-producer hopes to have cross-over success.

Dil-Vog's music is a rhythmic assault blending current popular music with percussion (Bhangra Rythms) from India. Lyrically it is fun time party music sang mostly in English with some added Punjabi and Hindi.

Dilvog is joined by Mal Kalar on Guitar, Andy Baryer on Bass, Scottie McCarger on Drums, Preet Reyat on Dhol and John Dean on Keys.
