DILVOG Indian Groove (Indian Groove)

As leader of Dal Dil Vog, Dale Hothi tried to merge an Indian flavour with a rock foundation. Now, as Dilvog, he's trying it the other way — a pop flavour merging with an Indian foundation. His rock band deserved to be a bigger hit than it was and likely was ahead of its time, but Indian Groove might be more timely. It is more dance-club friendly, although dance-floor rhythms were never far from Hothi. Apart from a smart cover of Simon and Garfunkel's "Cecilia," this is light bhangra pop married to a positive message. B
